

HELNAN PALESTINE HOTEL

Hotel History

Helnan Palestine Hotel was built to accommodate the Arab Kings and Heads of States participating in the Second Arab Summit Alexandria, Egypt in September 5th, 1964 . The summit formally approved the establishment of the Palestine Liberation Organization. Naturally, nothing was spared to provide maximum luxury, beauty and comfort. The hotel's location was carefully chosen in February 1964 by the late President" Gamal Abd El Nasser "amongst all Hotels in Egypt, where it was built in 6 months on a historical ground at the unique location of Montaza's fine beaches with its crystal blue water and surrounded by the vast magnificent gifts of nature, 350 acres of gardens of Montaza Royal Palace, which was once the site of the late King Farouk's summer palace. Helnan International Management Company took over the management of Palestine Hotel in 1987, and since then the hotel witnessed two renovations ending with a third complete renovation and refurbishment in 2002 to be the chosen place for hosting Kings, Queens and Presidents came from every place of the world to witness the Historical inauguration for Alexandria Bibliotheca. Helnan Palestine continued to be the place for accommodation of all heads of states, delegations and all the famous names visiting Alexandria, looking for Luxury with comfort, Excellence with style, Elegance with simplicity in service and hospitality

ALEXANDRIA:

"The Pearl of the Mediterranean"

Alexandria was named by Alexander the Great and by the year 200 BC, Alexandria was the largest, richest, and most modern city in the world.. In 30 BC, Cleopatra ruled Egypt from Alexandria the Capital. . Modern Alexandria is much bigger than it was with many legacies from its Greek and Roman history.

Alexandria is the chief port and second largest city of Egypt. Alexandria lies on the Mediterranean Sea at the western edge of the Nile Delta. Alexandria has a double harbor formed by a T-shaped peninsula. The Western Desert begins just west of Alexandria, and lake Mareotis is south of the city.
